BWYC TAKES LIPTON - The Bay Waveland Yacht Club captured the Sir Thomas Lipton Challenge Trophy to become the 1978 Gulf Yachting Association Champions this past weekend. The four skippers sailing for BWYC were Randy SantaCruz, first race on Saturday afternoon; Harry Chapman, left, morning race on Sunday, Bubby Eagan, second from left, afternoon race Sunday, and Marc Eagan morning race, Monday, Labor Day. According to Chuck Breath, team captain Randy placed sixth in his race; Harry, first; Bubby, first; and Marc, second to give the team the highest number of points to win over the second place Southern Yacht Club. Commodore Maurice Eagan reported that seventeen clubs were represented in this year's competition and they came from Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida to try to take the cup from BWYC who was defending champion. Hundreds of spectators enjoyed the beautiful weather and keen competition offered. The Lipton series is now sailed in the Flying Scot class and has been since 1969. In the ensuing years BWYC has captured this challenge trophy five times, more than any other club in the GYA. (Staff photo - Ellis Cuevas)

Citizens claim dire need of shared revenue

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis heard from several groups of residents requesting more funds from revenue sharing Tuesday.

A group of concerned parents, including Mrs. Paul McCormick, Mrs. David Trombley and Mrs. Alan Noonan and three teachers from North Bay Elementary, expressed concern about the heat conditions at the school.

The group also is concerned about an inadequate dishwasher in the cafeteria and a leaking roof.

A group of senior citizens reported concern about the conditions at their center. They claim unvented space heaters are outdated and illegal, and also bemoaned a leaking roof.

Mayor Bennett told the Seniors efforts are underway in seeking a grant to recondition the Valeria C. Jones complex used by the Senior Citizens and several governmental bodies.

Mrs. Prima Wusack, executive director of the Hancock County Library System, says she needs more money to purchase books and materials for the library system.

others," said Waveland Mayor John Longo. "He has helped with the churches, the Boy Scouts and every civic organization in the county and I think I can sum it up by saying this is a dedicated Christian family man and a patriotic American."

The Waveland Council in addition sanctioned the appointment of Ann Peters as official representative for Housing and Urban Development in Waveland. The city has been allocated $98,000 by HUD for the general upgrading of the city's Middletown neighborhood.

Other appointments approved by the Council include Helen Hargett, Rosine Jushaway, Otto Singleton, Frank Lyons and Charles Washington to the HUD Citizens Advisory Board.

Betty Diboll was appointed by the Mayor to replace Dr. M. L. Dodson on the Planning and Zoning Board.

Mayor Longo recommended the Council have the city attorney check with the State Insurance Commissioner and the State Rating Bureau to see if the insurance rates can be lowered for Waveland based on improvements in the Fire and Inspections Departments.

The council approved the measure with Alderman Grass adding, "anything to help the taxpayer."

City Attorney Lucien Gex noted that November 7 is first primary election for alderman and mayor with the second primary scheduled for November 14.

Gex added it is necessary to qualify 30 days prior to the first primary to run in that election.

Shuttle Enterprise this school year should make plans promptly, NASA reported.

While the Shuttle is in the hangar preparing for the second series of vibration tests, field trip visitors will get a first-hand look at America's reusable spaceplane.

The Enterprise will remain in this advantageous viewing position in the hangar until October 3.

After this date, the Space Shuttle will be moved to the 400 foot tall dynamic test stand, where it may be observed by closed circuit television.

Current test schedules indicate that another Space Shuttle hangar viewing period will follow the second series of tests.

It is expected late in this year, however, and would likely coincide with Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

The NASA tour for field trips to view the Enterprise also includes a stop in the gigantic test stand areas, and a visit to the laboratory where Spacelab, one of Shuttle's payloads, is being developed jointly by NASA and the European Space Agency.

Students also walk through the Skylab space station where astronauts trained and visit the Neutral Buoyancy Simulator where future Shuttle experiments and hardware are tested for the weightlessness of space.

Approximately 100,000 students and other field trip groups from 15 states visited NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center and their Visitor Information Center, last year. Space Shuttle viewing status information is available by calling toll-free from out of state 1-(800) 633-5761. All

Someone should be at the game

In last Friday night's contest between Hancock North Central and Our Lady of Victories, there weren't any Medical services available at the game.

When one of the players was injured, Mobile Medic had to be summoned from Bay St. Louis. We are not blaming Mobile Medic for not being there, but the school board and its administrators who are responsible for such services being at football games.

Hancock North Central plays only six regular home games this season and we cannot see why some type of emergency medical service isn't available at each game.

Football is a contact sport. Players get hurt. That is part of the game. Injuries happen at all age levels, including the professional ranks. If there were a way to eliminate injuries, it would be one of the best improvements to the game. No one has come up with the answer as yet.

We hope at the next home game we cover for Hancock North Central there will be some type of medical services available, just in case someone gets injured.

and if the City Council doesn't hold them to the line you are going to have problems. This is a very touchy matter.

After a lengthy discussion, Council was unanimous in putting the contractor and bonding company on notice.

Council was also unanimous in its vote to advertise for the clean-up of the Momany property or Old Ray's Place on Ulman Avenue.

City Clerk, Eddie Engelhorn said the property owners claim they cannot get anyone to do the job.

A representative of Joe Brown Engineers requested authorization to advertise for bids on the Buslog sewer extension project.

The engineer said he has been advised by City Attorney Joseph Gex that the state attorney general's office reports there are no provisions for allowing a change order in lieu of advertising the project.

Previously the Council and the engineers felt only a change order would be necessary to proceed with the project. Council authorized the City Clerk to advertise the project by a 3-2 vote with Councilmen Fred Wagner and Harry Favre objecting.

They objected because of past problems from authorizing advertising before final plans are seen.

Brown told the Council the plans would be ready by today and if any changes were necessary he would make them.

Brown said plans were ready last Thursday on the change order but it was necessary to do them over since bids are required.

Michael Smith addressed the Council on a proposal to make a utility study. Smith said it will be to the city's advantage to have such a report on bonds and assessments for HUD. It would tell the City how much money it could borrow in bonds and how they could be paid off.

Councilman Fred Wagner told the Council and Smith he is "Very impressed with the detailed study Smith's firm did for the Pass Christian Harbor with elaborate breakdowns on everything." Council asked Smith to make the proposal on the utilities study.

There was a discussion about an automatic hoist proposal on the Leonard Street well. After discussion, the Council felt it would be best to wait until the utilities study is made before authorizing such action. Advanced Designs made the proposal. According to reports the city has four wells and the Leonard Street well is the largest and it is not always used.

The Mayor said only two wells supply the city's water. Bennett also asked for a study to be done on the raising of the well and equipment as it is located in a low area.

Jake Jacob of the Coliseum Corporation appeared before the Council with a request for an amendment to the company's franchise agreement changing the name to Hancock Community Cable, Inc. Formerly a holding company, the firm is now an operating company, he said.

Jacob told the Council the same people are involved, only the name of the corporation would be changed. He also told the Council that the Cable TV was fully financed and moving along on schedule.

Williams named State Parks acting director

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

Jerry Williams, deputy director of Mississippi State Parks, was named acting parks director Thursday.

Williams was appointed to his new post following the resignation of former director Tom Edwards.

Williams said Edwards submitted his resignation August 10.

The Mississippi Parks Board elected Edwards as acting director at its regular park commission meeting last week.

Greg Smith, superintendent of Buccaneer State Park in Waveland, and Mary Callier, member of Hancock County Park Commission which oversees McLeod Park, said they do not think the changing of directors will affect their parks.

Also last week, Lonnie Rayburn was named assistant superintendent of Buccaneer, Smith announced.

Rayburn, a native of Wiggins, graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi. He was commissioned through ROTC and served in U.S. Army Special Forces as a Green Beret for 5.5 years.

Rayburn is married to the former Carol Nieder of Jamul, Ca.

Billboards with thermometers will be placed in Bay St. Louis, Kiln, and Waveland indicating the amount of funds collected during the campaign. All banks in Hancock County are accepting checks payable to the United Way of Hancock County or mail donations in envelopes addressed to the organization.

All contributions are tax deductible.

The Welcome Center will be the largest one built in the state to date and is of colonial design, portraying the image of Mississippi.

A colonade will completely surround the building providing a covered entrance at several locations. The interior will have three display rooms, two entrance areas, a reception area, information counter, rest rooms, and an employee office and lounge.

One feature that will characterize the interior design is a spiral stairway and balcony. The building has approximately 9,000 square feet under the roof.

The total area encompasses close to 40 acres and will feature picnic areas with covered tables and be landscaped in keeping with the architecture of the building.

After the center is opened, the A & I Board will staff the center and provide tourism material. Maintenance of the building and grounds will be under the state Highway Department.

More on address changes

Postmaster General

William F. Bolger
Washington, D.C.

Congressman Trent Lott
Washington, D.C.

Dear Postmaster General Bolger:

I am writing to you about a problem that has developed here in the Bay St. Louis, Miss. Post Office.

A complete change of Rural Postal Service is taking place with a new address for the area.

I was informed on Aug. 26, 1978, that as of Aug. 25, 1978, my address is changed from Route No. 4 Box 125 to Route No. 3 Box 528.

These changes seem to be happening periodically. It is at a point I do not know what address I will have tomorrow.

Would it be possible for your department to investigate this address change with some other way to be worked out, so this complete address change won't be necessary?

Please any assistance would be greatly appreciated.

I am enclosing a copy of my letter to postmaster Frank F. Taconi about why this change is more than a small inconvenience to me and other Postal Patrons here.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Louisa M. Brew

Beat 4 tractor, seniors' bus

get Board nod

By LESLIE WILLIAMS

A $22,750 tractor mower for Beat Four, Beat Five's plan to build a Community Center, and purchase of a bus for senior citizens were sanctioned Tuesday at the Hancock County Board of Supervisors meeting.

Supervisor of Beat Four, Sam Pernicaro, obtained approval from the Board to purchase the tractor mower from Coastal Machinery of Hattiesburg.

Beat Five Supervisor James N. Travirca received permission from the Board to begin building a Community Center in Fenton.

Travirca estimates the building will cost $17,000.

He was appointed to supervise construction since no outside bids were submitted on the project.

The purchase of a 15-passenger bus and sale of an old senior citizens bus were accepted by the Board.

Chancery Court Clerk John Rutherford was authorized to advertise for bids on the bus.

Three resignations and appointments were approved by the Board.

The supervisors accepted Roy Baxter Jr.'s resignation from Hancock County Planning Commission and approved appointment to the commission of Albert Stell who was recommended by James Travirca.

The Board accepted Baxter's resignation with regret.

Beverly Poolson resigned from the Gulf Coast Mosquito Control Commission and was succeeded by Cyril Glover. D.V. Fredrick Jr. resigned from the Gulf Regional Planning Commission with Joseph Tate receiving approval from the board to assume that position.

An added surprise came at the meeting when James Walthour, Route 3, Box 313, Picayune, was awarded the Bronze Star by Sam Pernicaro. The Bronze Star is the third highest military award the nation can bestow.

Walthour was wounded in Italy during World War II.

He retired recently from the Navy in Philadelphia, Pa.

Circuit Court Clerk and Registrar of Voters Henry Ottis recommended the Diamondhead Sales Lodge to be the new Diamondhead West Voting Precinct.

The Diamondhead West voting precinct had been located at Diamondhead's administration building which was leased as a minimall making it unsuitable as a polling place.

The Board also appointed Sam Pernicaro and James Travirca to check the feasibility of a road paving proposal in Beat One.

If a petition from 10 people in a district is presented for area improvements to the Board by the supervisor of the beat in question, then two supervisors other than the supervisor of that district will research the problem.

The Sea Coast Echo welcomes comments from its readers on subjects of general public interest. All letters must be signed, home address given and conform to published standards. Be brief, in good taste and reason.

Congressman Trent Lott

Dear Congressman Lott:

I am writing to see if you can use your good offices to help myself and a great many of your constituents.

For the third time in about two years we have had our mail route number changed. Nobody has moved, but thousands of people are being forced to spend hard-earned or saved dollars to notify all correspondents of the route change. Lots of us do not know who our correspondents will be and after a short time the local post office sends the mail back - marked "Address Unknown!"

In one case my flood insurance was cancelled because I did not know where or to whom we were to send the money, having had a notice that things were being changed and we would be notified in time where to forward the check. Luckily, I was able to reinstate and we did not have a hurricane when I was not covered.

Secondly, they have decided to reverse the route and now, in addition to the trouble and expense of notifying correspondents, they have ordered us to move the boxes to the other side of the road.

Personally, I think under the circumstances the Post Office Dept. should give these affected patrons free franking privileges to notify their correspondents.

In my opinion the Post Office supervisory and management ability is so low that I dare not express it.

Congressmen, we want our support for re-election, which we will give, but we are asking this of you - do something for us. There surely must be other simple ways to handle this without disrupting thousands.

Respectfully,

C. W. HARRIS

To United Way,

Thank you for your share towards, our comfortable, air-conditioned, hydraulic lift bus. It was indeed a pleasure to do our Monday a.m. shopping and also to go to the center in the afternoon for a social in the new vehicle.

It gives you a lot of confidence at the age 84 years to know somewhere someone still cares.

Thanking you for your attention.

Black and Decker

cord adapter is potential hazard

The Black and Decker Manufacturing Co., Towson, Md., in cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), has announced a voluntary recall of its no. 66-2104 extension-cord adapters because of a potential shock hazard. The adapters were packaged with Black and Decker electric hedge trimmers during the spring and summer of 1978, and distributed nationwide.

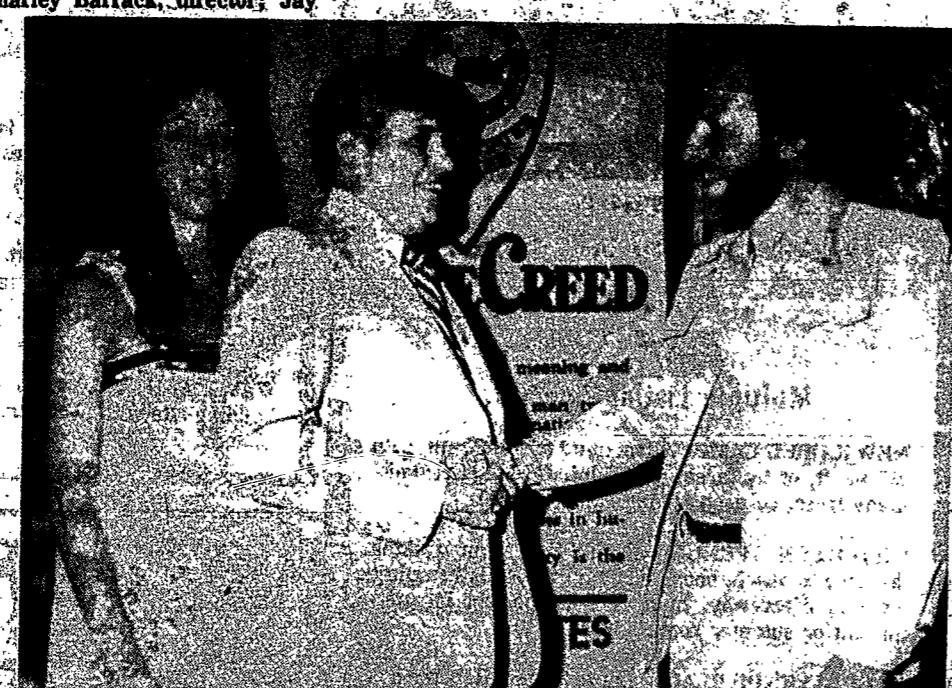

According to the company, less than 1,000 of the more than 200,000 adapters produced could have exposed brass electrical contacts protruding through the molded material, a condition which could cause a serious electrical shock.

The adapters are orange and can be identified by the number 66-2104 molded on the outside surface. The adapters are supplied as standard equipment with hedge trimmers, along with instructions for attaching the adapter to an extension cord. Consumers should immediately stop using the adapters and closely examine them for any metal showing through the outside surface.

Adapters showing metal should be returned for free replacement to any Black and Decker Service Center or a Black and Decker authorized service center listed in the yellow pages.

The company, which informed CPSC of the potential safety hazard on July 11, 1978, sent letters providing recall instructions to all consumers who mailed in the registration card packed with the hedge trimmers.

Consumers who have questions about the condition of their adapters or who need additional information can call Black and Decker collect at 301-328-2955 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time. To verify the model number, call CPSC's toll-free Hotline at 800-638-2666. In Maryland, only call 800-492-2937. Dear persons who have special typewriters can call the hotline at 800-693-2690; in Maryland, 800-492-2938.

FREEDOM TO BE...

FAIR TIME COMING

The Hancock County Fair and Livestock Show is scheduled for September 25-30. 4-H members and other youth should be busy preparing their exhibits. They are encouraged to pick up a copy of the current catalog at the County Extension Office, so all rules and regulations can be followed. The following items are especially important.

DRESS REVUE

The 4-H Dress Revue will be held on Monday night at 7:00 o'clock. Exhibitors must adhere to the set categories and should pre-register their garments. The official entry forms are available from the Extension Office.

SWINE EXHIBITS

Our new hog barn will not be finished so we are going to have to build pens again. Exhibitors will be required to furnish the floor for the pens. Exhibitors are also reminded that a limit of two exhibits will be the policy.

POULTRY EXHIBITS

All poultry exhibits will be inspected for Pullorum on Thursday morning of the Fair. Any positive bird will be taken to the State Diagnostic Lab at Jackson for further testing. If the bird proves positive there, all poultry on the owners farm will then be checked. This is a new regulation that everyone must be mindful of.

Also, you are reminded that there is a limit of eight exhibits per exhibitor.

If anyone has questions on these items or any other aspects of the Fair, they may call the County Extension Office, 467-5456 for help.

Rocks open 78 season against Pearl River Central

By ELLIS CUEVAS

St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws will open their gridiron season Friday night entertaining Pearl River Central in Rock-A-Chaw stadium.

Rock-Chaw head coach Billy Poole, talking about the 1978 Rocks commented, "We feel we have one of the best squads we have had in several years at Stanislaus."

The 1978 Rock-A-Chaws have four running backs who are seniors with some good juniors and sophomores to back them up, Poole said.

Coach Poole says his backfield will have more weight this year compared with the 1977 teams.

The Rocks will be missing the running of 1000-yard man Bill Kergosien this season.

"We don't have anyone as quick as Kergosien, but we have much more depth this year," commented Coach Poole.

Coach Poole is very concerned with the ankle injury of David Mead during a scrimmage on Labor Day, saying he probably won't see any action Friday night.

Coach Poole listed the following as probable starters on offense against Pearl River: Bruce Morreale, center; Glenn Logan and Robert Bourgeois, guards; Daniel Handshoe and David Murtagh, tackles; Freddie Keel and David Grapusa, ends; Peter Bernheim, quarterback, Scott Senner, fullback, Jimmy DeSilva, tailback, and Perry Cabel and Jim Bo Rogers sharing flanker.

Defensive starters will be Martie Tighe or Mike Scardino, nose guard; John Logan and David Grapusa, linebackers; Keith Favre and Ted Schmidt, tackles; Jamie McKeough at one end; Glenn Logan filling in for the injured David Mead the other end; Randy Santa Cruz and Kim Johnson, safeties; Keith Pfister at one cornerback and the other corner position either Charlie Armata, Juan Betanzos or Marc Meyers.

Coach Poole had these comments about Pearl River.

"They were strong last year, and are a big team." The line averages over 200 pounds and the backfield 180 pounds plus. Pearl River is a good ball club and are well coached."

Last season the Rocks defeated Pearl River 20-6.

The kick-off is scheduled at 7:30 in Rock-A-Chaw stadium Friday.

Earl Hassler
joins UM staff

Earl Hassler, one of Mississippi's top singles and doubles players, has joined the University of Mississippi athletic staff as assistant tennis coach.

Undefeated in four years of competition at Jackson Prep, Hassler won the state high school singles title in 1974 and captured the Southern Junior singles and doubles crowns also.

He led the University of North Carolina to four straight Atlantic Coast Conference championships as the Tar Heels were ranked in the nation's top 15.

A regular on the tournament circuit, he has been ranked number one in the South at different times in every age division for 10-18 year olds in both singles and doubles.

In addition to his duties with the Ole Miss men's and women's tennis squads, Hassler will be enrolled in the Ole Miss Law School.

Former Memphis State standout Ronnie Robinson has joined the basketball staff at the University of Mississippi, head coach Bob Weitlich reports.

Robinson, a former three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference forward, will assist mainly in the areas of recruiting and on-the-floor coaching. He replaces John Ritter, who resigned to enter private business.

"We feel we are extremely fortunate to have gained the services of a coach of Ronnie's calibre," Weitlich said. "We think he will be of great help in both our recruiting, as well as helping coach our players at the inside positions."
